Great Lakes and Atlantic Canal and Power Company, Limited

THE objective of this Company, first mooted by the promotors in 1896, is the creation of a Deep Speedy Navigable Waterway from Tidewater to the Head of the Great Lakes, with private capital and without Government subsidy.

The first application to Parliament towards this end was made in 1902 (Bill No. 80).

The Company was granted its Charter by Letters Patent in 1914.

The Company advocates that all canals in the International Section be through Canadian territory under Canadian control.

The Company proposes, with the sanction of Parliament, to create the first link of this Ocean to Lakes Waterway within the All-Canadian Section, tidewater to Cornwall, Ont.

The route of the Great Lakes to Ocean Waterway, as proposed by this Company, has been found, after much study, to be the safest, most practical and most economical, overcoming the difference of level between Lake Superior and Montreal by the lift of 14 locks only.

THE PORT of MONTREAL

THE season of navigation of 1928 was the most successful in the history of the Port of Montreal.

New Records were created for intensive freight handling, but the most impressive feature of the year's work was that for the eighth successive year, the Port of Montreal was the premier grain-shipping seaport in the world, having in the seven months of navigation shipped

211,000,000 bushels of Grain

PREFACE

The editor of the Canadian Parliamentary Guide in presenting the edition for the year 1929 begs again to express appreciation of the cordial support received in the various phases of the enterprise, the success of which, it may be noted, increases from year to year.

The most striking events of the year 1928 in matters Parliamentary, or closely associated therewith, were perhaps the additional diplomatic appointments by the Dominion of Canada to other countries and by other countries to the Dominion of Canada, and provincial elections in the provinces of British Columbia and Nova Scotia.

Briefly, the contents of the Canadian Parliamentary Guide for 1929 may be grouped generally under headings as follows: —

1. (a) Appointment by the British Government of a High Commissioner to the Dominion of Canada, resident in Ottawa; (b) appointment by the Dominion of Canada of a Minister Plenipotentiary to France; (c) appointment by the Government of France of a Minister Plenipotentiary to the Dominion of Canada;

2. Nominations to the Senate to fill vacancies caused by death.

3. Results of by-elections for the House of Commons and for the legislatures of the various provinces.

4. A general election in the province of British Columbia necessitating a change of Government.

5. A general election in the province of Nova Scotia.

6. Details of membership of the Parliament of Canada and of the legistative bodies of the various provinces and territories.

7. Biographical sketches of all members of the Senate and of the House of Commons and of the Legislature of each province.

8. Biographical sketches of diplomatic appointees, of members of the Supreme Court of Canada and of the leading officers of Parliament and of the Public Service of Canada.

It should be observed that where biographical information is afforded every effort has been made to secure full and accurate details, but occasionally, because of the failure of the persons concerned to supply the facts requested, the sketches are less complete than the editor would desire; in all such cases the information printed is restricted substantially to that found in official documents.

The editor would draw attention to the importance of readers consulting the lines placed at the head of each section of this volume and which indicate the dates at which the revision of the chapter or section of reading matter immediately following was completed. The revision of every page or even every section of such a book of reference as the Canadian Parliamentary Guide cannot be completed on the same day, and, the compilation being based on official data received from all parts of the Dominion, there must be considerable variation in the dates of the final revision of the various sections; an appendix contains the latest changes up to the time of going to press.

Revision of the matter contained in the Guide is a continuous task requiring the constant attention of the editor. It is realized that despite care and vigilance errors or omissions may occur, and the editor will always welcome any definite information bearing on the same.

The feathers in the older plume badge have since 1876 been officially depicted and borne perfectly erect, and not as formerly borne, and sometimes, at the present day, but wrongly, represented.

PARLIAMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

The King, as sovereign, exercises all powers of executive government through a cabinet composed of certain sworn privy councillors, who act as advisers of the Crown, and conduct the public administration in accordance with law and constitutional usage. The Crown is hereditary, but subject to such limitations as may be imposed by Parliament—i.e., by the Crown, the Lords and the Commons

The Cabinet, or Committee of Ministers, in whom the executive government of Great Britain and Ireland is practically, though not nominally, vested, is selected with the approval of the Crown, by a Premier or First Minister, who is the choice of the Crown, the existence of the Cabinet, the members of which belong to His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, being dependent upon the possession of the confidence of a majority in the House of Commons, the popular branch of Parliament.

The Parliament of the United Kingdom is composed of the Crown, the Lords, and the Commons, this division into three branches dating from the middle of the fourteenth century. The House of Lords, the Magnum Concilium of ancient days, consists of archbishops, bishops and peers, the latter divided into dukes, marquesses, earls, viscounts and barons. Three princes of the Royal blood have also seats in the house. No peer can take his seat if he be under age, of unsound mind, or bankrupt. The Speaker is the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, who is a member of the Cabinet and retires with a change of government. The House of Lords has co-ordinate powers of legislation with the House of Commons, except as respects taxation or money bills. It cannot initiate or amend such bills, but it may reject them, as a whole. The maximum duration of the British Parliament is five years.

The House of Commons is the body where the chief political power rests. Since the general election held Nov. 15, 1922 it has consisted of 615 members. Up to dissolution, preceding the election in question, there had been 707 members, the absence of members from the South of Ireland on account of the creation of the Irish Free State being responsible for the decrease. The first Parliament of King George which was elected in January, 1910, was dissolved Nov. 28, 1910, and the term of the 2nd Parlt. Geo. V., elected December, 1910, on account of the war, was extended. The third Parliament of King George was elected in December, 1918. This general election presented several new features. For one thing the voting was done in one day. Then it was the first time that women voted in Britain, and the first time that there were women candidates.

The Third Parliament of King George was dissolved Oct. 26 1922, and the general election held November 15, 1922, resulted as follows:—

Conservative (Govt.) 347; Labour, 142; National Liberal (Georgian), 59; Liberal (Asquithian), 59; Independent, 5; Nationalist, 2; Sinn Fein, 1; Total, 615.

The fourth parliament of King George V (being the first parliament of Great Britain and Northern Ireland), was dissolved on November 16, 1923, and voting for a new parliament took place December 6th. The election resulted as follows:—Conservatives, 256; Labour, 192; Liberal, 159; other parties 8; total 615. Eight women were among the succesful candidates.

The fifth parliament of King George V was dissolved October 9th, 1924, and the polling in the resulting general election held on October 29th. The result of the vote was as follows:—Conservative, 413; Labour and Socialist (Govt.), 150; Liberal, 39; Constitutionalist, 7; Independent, 4; Irish Nationalist, 1; Speaker, 1; total 615.

Although forty-one women candidates stood for Parliament in 1924 only four were elected compared with eight in 1923.

Labour representation in the House of Commons since 1900 has been as follows:— 1900, 2; 1906, 29; 1910, 40; 1918, 57; 1922, 142; 1923, 193; 1924, 150.

August 14, 1911, the House of Commons of the United Kingdom by a vote of 241 to 128 passed a resolution appropriating £252,000 for the payment of members' salaries for the then ensuing year. This action was taken pursuant to a resolution passed August 10, providing for an annual salary of £400 for each member of the House of Commons. This was a radical departure from the principle of gratuitous public service which hitherto prevailed in the Commons of the United Kingdom.

Lady Astor, the first woman elected a member of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, took her seat December 1, 1919.

THE UNITED KINGDOM GOVERNMENT.

(Revised December 24, 1928)

The Government of the Right Hon. David Lloyd George first formed in 1915 and reorganized in 1918 and 1921 ended with the resignation of the Prime Minister, October 19, 1922. This resignation was the direct result of a meeting of Conservative members of Parliament held at the Carleton Club at which a resolution was passed to withdraw from support of the Coalition. On the recommendation of Mr. Lloyd George, His Majesty sent for the Right Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the Conservative party, to form a government, which he did forthwith.

On account of failing health, Mr. Bonar Law (C) resigned the Premiership, May 20, 1923, and on May 22nd, the Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin (C) accepted the vacant office offered him by the King. The new Prime Minister being in favour of a measure of Protection, and Mr. Bonar Law during the electoral campaign of 1922 having pledged himself that a Conservative victory at the polls would not be taken as a popular demand for the adoption of the Protective system, advised His Majesty to dissolve Parliament, which he did. At the resultant election in December, 1923, the Conservative (Government) party secured more supporters than either of the other parties but fell short of gaining a majority over all other parties combined. As all of the other parties had pronounced themselves opposed to the principle of Protection, the Cabinet after careful consideration of the constitutional precedents and their bearings upon the situation which had arisen as a result of the elections, decided that it was their constitutional duty to meet Parliament at the earliest possible moment. A session was summoned for January 8, 1924, and the Government, having received an adverse vote in the House of Commons Mr. Baldwin on January 22nd tendered his resignation to His Majesty and advised the Sovereign to send for Mr. James Ramsay MacDonald, (Labour) who as leader of the most numerous party in opposition, was recognized as official opposition leader. Mr. MacDonald accepted the task offered him and the new cabinet was officially announced the same afternoon.

October 8, 1924, a vote of censure on the government of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, on account of the withdrawal of a prosecution for sedition in the courts by the Attorney General was passed in the House of Commons by a vote of 364 to 198, and the following day, the Prime Minister recommended dissolution to The King, who accepted it, the parliament being forthwith dissolved. The government being defeated at the ensuing elections on October 29th, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, the Prime Minister, on November 4th, tendered his resignation, which was accepted; the King sending for Mr. Stanley Baldwin to form a cabinet, which he did, and the new ministry assumed office November 7th, 1924. On December 1, 1927, the Ministry was as follows:—

THE DOMINION OF CANADA.

The territories which now constitute the Dominion of Canada came under the British flag at various times, some by settlement and others by conquest or cession. Nova Scotia (Acadia) was discovered by the Cabots, in the service of King Henry VII, in 1497. That part of Canada now forming the Province of Quebec was discovered by Jacques Cartier, in the service of King Francis I of France, in 1534. The Colony of Halifax was founded in 1749. By the treaty of Utrecht (1713) Acadia, and the Hudson Bay Territory (Hudson Bay was discovered by Henry Hudson in 1610) were acknowledged to be British Territory. The Hudson Bay Company's charter, conferring right of government over the territory now known as the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and the North-West Territories, was granted in 1670. The old French Colony of Canada was surrendered by the capitulation of Montreal, signed September 8, 1760, and along with Prince Edward Island, and part of the present Province of New Brunswick, formally ceded to Great Britain by France under the Treaty of Paris, signed Feb. 10, 1763.

Vancouver Island was acknowledged to be British by the Oregon Boundary Treaty of 1846, and British Columbia was occupied in 1858.

As originally constituted, the Dominion of Canada was composed of the provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. They were united under the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament (30 Victoria, Chapter III) passed in 1867, and commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1867," although its full official designation originally was:—"An Act for the Union of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and the government thereof, and for purposes connected therewith." This Act received the Royal assent March 29th, 1867, and came into effect by virtue of Royal Proclamation July 1st, 1867. This Act expressly provides that the Constitution of the Dominion shall be "similar in principle to that of the United Kingdom" (1st clause), so that the executive authority shall be vested in the Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland, and carried on in her name by a Governor-General and Council "to aid and advise in the government of Canada, to be styled the Queen's Privy Council for Canada." (Clauses 9, 10 and 11). Provision was made in the Act for the admission of British Columbia, Prince Edward Island, the North-West Territories, and Newfoundland into the Dominion (Clause 146) Newfoundland alone has not availed itself of such provision. In 1869 the extensive region known under the various designations of "Rupert's Land," "the Hudson Bay Territory," and "the North-West Territory," was added to the Dominion by purchase from the Hudson Bay Company. The Province of Manitoba was set apart out of a portion of it (32-33 Victoria, Chap. 3), and admitted into the Confederation July 15, 1870.

July 20, 1871, the Province of British Columbia, and July 1, 1873, the province of Prince Edward Island, respectively, entered the confederation.

June 25, 1886, the Royal assent was given to "An Act respecting the representation in the Parliament of Canada of Territories which for the time being form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province," commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1886" (49-50 Victoria, Chapter XXXV).

This Act provides that the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, make provisions for the representation in the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, or in either of them, of any Territories which, for the time being, form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province thereof.

The Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan were formed from the provisional districts of Alberta, Athabaska, Assiniboia and Saskatchewan (4-5 Edward VII, Chap. 3 and 42), and were admitted to the Union as Provinces on September 1st, 1905.

During the first session of the 12th Parliament a bill was passed extending the areas of Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec northward by adding to those provinces portions of the North-West Territory.

Population:—Census of 1911, 7,206,643: Census of 1921, 8,788,483. Estimate of population by the Bureau of Statistics, 1928, 9,658,000.

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA.

The present Canadian system of government, which was established under the British North America Act of 1867, is a Federal Union, the first of the kind in the British Empire. It comprises a general or central government controlling matters essential to the development, the permanency and the unity of the Dominion as a whole, and also a number of provincial governments having the control and management of certain clearly defined local matters naturally and conveniently falling within their jurisdiction. These several governments are administered in strict accordance with the principles of British parliamentary government.

The executive power of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, as also the chief command of the military and naval forces, is vested in the King, represented by the Governor-General, appointed by the Crown (the British Government) and advised by a Cabinet chosen from members of the King's Privy Council for Canada, and consisting of ministers holding departmental offices, besides, often, one or more ministers without portfolios. The Government holds office as long as it has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

It is not necessary that all the members of the Cabinet be members of the Senate or the House of Commons as long as the Cabinet, as a whole, has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

According to the B.N.A. Act, 1867, Sec. 55, where a Bill passed by the Houses of Parliament is presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of the mentioned Act and to Her Majesty's instruction, either that he assents thereto in the Queen's name, or that he withholds the Queen's assent, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.

European War 1914-18 in London Rifle Brigade and Royal West Kent Regiment; Private Secretary to successive British Ministers in Peking, 1920-1927. Married, 1922, Dorothy, daughter of G. C. A. Hasloch of Cobham, Surrey. Appointed Secretary to the Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada, 1927; Address: Government House, Ottawa. Clubs: Thatched House Club, St. James' St., London.

ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Up to May 7, 1901, it was provided by Royal Letters Patent that the "powers granted His Excellency may in the case of his death, incapacity or absence, be given to the Lieutenant-Governor for the time being of Canada, or in his absence to such person as Her Majesty might, by warrant, appoint to be Administrator, or in the absence of such Lieutenant-Governor or Administrator to the Senior Military Officer for the time being in command of Her Majesty's regular Forces in the Dominion."

Upon the date mentioned a dormant commission passed under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet appointing the Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, or in the case of the death, incapacity, removal or absence from Canada of the Chief Justice, the Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, to be Administrator of the Government of the Dominion in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor-General.

The Royal Letters Patent of June 15, 1905, which provided for the change in the designation of His Excellency's office from that of "Governor-General in and over the Dominion of Canada," to that of "Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of Canada," contained the same provision as to the Administrator as the dormant Commission, and that instrument, being thus rendered superfluous, was withdrawn and cancelled.

The Administrator is vested with all the powers and authorities granted to the Governor-General by letters patent or otherwise.

The General Election held on October 29, 1925, had not given any of the leading parties a clear majority over a combined opposition. Conservatives, led by Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, were returned to the number of 116, Liberals numbering 101, the remaining 28 members consisting of Progressives, Labour and Independents. The Prime Minister and several of his colleagues were defeated.

The Government (L) remained in power, Parliament met on January 7, 1926, and the Government (L) was sustained on the first division. The Prime Minister, the Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, at a by-election held on February 15, 1926, was returned by a majority of over 5,000 in Prince Albert, Sask. Hon. Chas. A. Dunning, then Premier of Saskatchewan, on March 1, 1926, accepted office in the Federal Government as Minister of Railways and Canals, and was returned by acclamation for Regina on March 16, 1926. Hon. J. C. Elliott was appointed Minister of Labour on March 8, 1926, and was re-elected on March 29, 1926.

The Session of 1926, opening early in January, proved one of the most important since Confederation and reached its climax when the report of the Special Committee of the House of Commons, appointed to inquire into the administration of the Department of Customs and Excise, came up for adoption. The report was debated for several days. The Prime Minister (L) on June 28, informed the House of Commons as the sitting began, that the Government had resigned; the Prime Minister added that he had recommended to His Excellency the Governor-General the dissolution of Parliament, and the Governor-General, having declined to accept this recommendation, the Government had resigned office. The House then immediately adjourned. On the same date, the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen was sworn in as Prime Minister and formed a temporary Cabinet. The Government (C) without its Leader, returned before the House of Commons to finish the work of the Session and to vote supplies. The temporary Cabinet was composed as follows:— Right Hon. A. Meighen, Prime Minister; Hon. Sir Henry Drayton, Acting Leader in the Commons; Hon. W. A. Black, Sir George Perley, R. J. Manion, Hugh Guthrie and H. H. Stevens, Ministers without Portfolio.

At the sitting of July First, on a resolution moved by Hon. J. A. Robb, seconded by Hon. W. R. Motherwell, the Meighen Administration was defeated. The Dissolution of the 15th Parliament was announced by Proclamation of His Excellency the Governor-General, July 2, 1926.

On July 13, 1926, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen announced the formation of his Cabinet as follows:—

On August 23rd, 1926, the following Ministers were taken in the Cabinet:—

Hon. Dr. E. Paquet, as Minister of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment.
Hon. G. A. Fauteux, as Solicitor General.

Shortly after being defeated at the polls at the g.e. of 1926, the Right Hon. A. Meighen placed his resignation and that of his cabinet at the disposal of His Excellency the Governor-General, and upon its acceptance, the Honourable W. L. Mackenzie King, C.M.G., was entrusted with the formation of a new cabinet, which he succeeded in doing. THE SENATE OF CANADA.

According to the British North America Act, 1867, the Senate as originally constituted was to consist of 72 members; 24 for the Province of Ontario, 24 for Quebec and 24 for the Maritime Provinces (Nova Scotia and New Brunswick). Qualifications were laid down as follows:—Must be a British subject; must be thirty years of age; must be possessed of real property, free of all incumbrances, to the value of $4,000; must be a resident of the province for which he is appointed. Senators are appointed by the Governor-General in Council and, subject to certain conditions, hold their appointments for life. A Senator may by writing resign his seat. His place becomes vacant (1) if for two consecutive sessions of Parliament he fails to attend; (2) if he becomes a subject or citizen of a foreign power; (3) if he becomes a bankrupt or defaulter (4) if he is attainted of felony or convicted of felony or crime; (5) if he ceases to be qualified in respect of property. The Governor-General in Council appoints the Speaker of the Senate, the Clerk and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod. The debates and proceedings of the Senate are governed by Rules and Orders modelled to a considerable extent after those of the House of Lords and differing very considerably from those of the House of Commons. Thus honourable gentlemen, rising to speak, address themselves to the "Honourable Gentlemen," composing the House, and not to "Mr. Speaker," as in the House of Commons.

Each of the Senators from Quebec is appointed to represent one of 24 divisions corresponding with former electoral divisions of the old Province of Lower Canada. Senators for other provinces are not appointed for any designated divisions, but the practice of assuming distinctive territorial designations prevails. A popular practice of Senators who have formerly sat in the House of Commons is to adopt as their designations the titles of their former constituencies. Several are content to be designated as "from" the city or town in which they reside. Senators must continue to reside in the province from which they are appointed.

The first increase in the membership of the Senate took place in 1871, when Manitoba and British Columbia, upon entering the Confederation, were awarded two and three seats respectively. In 1873 Prince Edward Island, upon entering Confederation, was given four members, the representation of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick being reduced by two senators each. In 1882 Manitoba was given an additional member and in 1892 another.

In 1888 the North-West Territories were given two senators. In 1904, in virtue of the Act 3 Edward VII, Chapter 42, the representation of the North-West Territories was increased to four. Upon creation of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan in 1905, each was allotted 4 seats in the Senate, or eight seats between them.

The Senate as then constituted consisted of 87 members as follows:—Ontario, 24; Quebec, 24; Nova Scotia, 10; New Brunswick, 10; Prince Edward Island, 4; British Columbia, 3; Manitoba, 4; Saskatchewan, 4; Alberta, 4.

During the session of 1914 (3rd session XII Parliament) the government introduced a measure providing for the increase of representation in the Senate to 96. This measure provided that the detail of representation should be as follows:—Ontario by 24 senators; Quebec, by 24 senators; the Maritime Provinces and Prince Edward Island, by 24 senators, 10 thereof representing Nova Scotia, 10 thereof representing New Brunswick and 4 thereof representing Prince Edward Island; the western provinces by 24 senators, 6 thereof representing Manitoba, 6 thereof representing British Columbia, 6 thereof representing Saskatchewan and 6 Alberta.

This measure as amended by the Senate came into effect upon the dissolution of the 12th parliament.

In accordance with 5th Edward VII, Chapter 43, an allowance was made to each member of the Senate and House of Commons, of $20 for each day's attendance if the session did not extend beyond thirty days, and if the session extended beyond that time an allowance of $2,500 was made. For every day on which a member did not attend a sitting of his House a deduction at the rate of $15 per day was made.

During the fourth session of the 13th Parliament of Canada (1920) there was passed an Act to amend the Salaries Act and the Senate and House of Commons Act, which provided for an increase in the sessional indemnities of Senators and Members of the House of Commons from $2,500 to $4,000. In view of the increased indemnity, certain restrictive provisions were imposed in the Bill, the chief of which read as follows: "A member shall not be entitled to the sessional allowance if he does not attend a sitting of the House of which he is a member on at least three-fourths of the days upon which such House sits; but the allowance for any less number of days shall be twenty-five dollars for each day's attendance."

It was provided in this legislation that the Prime Minister need not be burdened with a portfolio and that he receive a salary of $15,000, the other ministers to receive salaries of $10,000 each.

Provision was also made for the raising of the salaries of the Speakers of the Senate and House of Commons from $4,000 to $6,000 and the salary of the Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons from $2,000 to $4,000.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA.

The House of Commons of Canada is elected by the people for five years, unless sooner dissolved by the Governor-General. Members require no property qualifications, but they must be of the age of 21, and British subjects, not disqualified by law. The Speaker is chosen by the House at the opening sitting of the first session of each parliament.

The members are elected by constituencies and voting is by ballot.

The number of members of the House of Commons is regulated by the following clauses of the British North America Act, 1867:—

"51. On the completion of the Census in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-One, and of each subsequent decennial Census, the representation of the four Provinces shall be readjusted by such authority, in such a manner, and from such time as the Parliament of Canada from time to time provides, subject and according to the following Rules:—

"(1). Quebec shall have the fixed number of Sixty-five members

"(2). There shall be assigned to each of the other Provinces such a number of members as will bear the same proportion to the number of its population (ascertained at such Census) as the number Sixty-five bears to the number of the population of Quebec (so ascertained).

"(3). In the computation of the number of members for a Province a fractional part not exceeding one-half of the whole number requisite for entitling the Province to a member shall be disregarded; but a fractional part exceeding one-half of that number shall be equivalent to the whole number.

"(4). On any such readjustment the number of members for a Province shall not be reduced unless the proportion which the number of the population of the Province bore to the number of the aggregate population of Canada at the then last preceding readjustment of the numbers of members for the Province is ascertained at the then latest Census to be diminished by one twentieth part or upwards.

Arthur Beauchesne, Clerk of the House of Commons.

"(5). Such readjustments shall not take effect until the termination of the then existing Parliament.

"52. The number of the members of the House of Commons may from time to time be increased by the Parliament of Canada, providing the proportionate representation of the Province prescribed by this Act is not thereby disturbed."

At Confederation (1867) the House of Commons consisted of 181 members of which Ontario returned 82; Quebec 65; Nova Scotia, 19; and New Brunswick, 15. During the fourth session of the 1st Parliament the representation was increased to 191, Manitoba (4 members) and British Columbia (6 members) having entered Confederation.

The representation in the 2nd Parliament (July 8, 1872, to Jan. 2, 1874), under the Redistribution Act of 1872, was 200 up to the last sessions, when there was an increase of 6 members owing to the admission of Prince Edward Island to Confederation. Ontario had 88 members; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6.

In the 3rd Parliament (Jan. 2, 1874, to August 17, 1878), and in the 4th Parliament (Aug. 17, 1878, to May 18, 1882) the representation remained as at the dissolution of the 2nd Parliament, viz:—Ontario, 88; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 6. Total 206.

The representation in the 5th Parliament (May 16, 1882, to Jan. 15, 1887) under the Representation Act of 1887, was increased to 211, the Ontario representation being increased from 88 to 92 and that of Manitoba from 4 to 5.

In the 6th Parliament (Jan. 15, 1887, to Feb. 3, 1891), the representation remained unchanged, except that in 1887 the North-West Territories were granted representation with 4 members, thus making a total representation of 215.

During the 7th Parliament (Feb. 3, 1891, to April 24, 1896) there was no change in the representation.

In the 8th Parliament (April 24, 1896, to Oct. 9, 1900), under the Representation Act of 1892-3, the representation was as follows:—Ontario, 92; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 20; New Brunswick, 14; Manitoba, 7; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 5; North-West Territories, 4. Total, 213.

During the 9th Parliament (Oct. 9, 1900, to Sept. 29, 1904), there was but one change in the representation, a seat being added for the Yukon Territory (Chap. 37, 1902). This made 214 members, distributed as follows:—Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 18; New Brunswick, 13; Manitoba, 10; North-West Territories, 10; British Columbia, 7; Prince Edward Island, 4; the Yukon Territory, 1.

The House remained so constituted until the dissolution of the 10th Parliament, September 17th, 1908.

During the first session of the Tenth Parliament of Canada (1905) provision was made for the creation of the new provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta out of part of the North-West Territories, and provision was made for the taking of a census of population in the two new provinces, as also in Manitoba, in the middle year of each decade commencing with 1906. The results of the first quinquennial census made necessary, according to the Saskatchewan and Alberta Acts, a readjustment of the representation of Saskatchewan and Alberta in the House of Commons, and at the session of 1906-07 an amendment was passed to the Representation Act (Chapter 5 of the Revised Statutes 1906) providing that the House of Commons shall consist of two hundred and twenty-one (221) members, as follows:—Ontario 86; Quebec, 65; Saskatchewan, 10 (a gain of 4); British Columbia, 7; Alberta, 7 (a gain of 3); Prince Edward Island, 4; Yukon Territory, 1.

By a special clause embodied in this Act, it only took effect upon the dissolution of the 10th Parliament.

During the session of 1914 (3rd session 12th Parlt.) a Redistribution Bill was passed, providing for an increase in the number of members of the House of Commons to 235, divided among the provinces as follows:—Ontario, 82; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 16; New Brunswick, 11; Manitoba, 15; British Columbia 13; Prince Edward Island, 4; Saskatchewan, 16: Alberta, 12; Yukon, 1; Total 235. The new Act came into effect with the dissolution of the Twelfth Parliament.

During the session of 1923 (2nd of the 14th Parlt.) the Government introduced a Redistribution Bill based upon the census of 1921. It was not passed before prorogation and was accordingly re-introduced at the 1924 session and with certain amendments adopted. Under its provisions the Maritime Provinces lose two members; both in Nova Scotia; the Prairie Provinces gain eleven —four going to Alberta, five to Saskatchewan and two to Manitoba. British Columbia gains one. The other provinces remain as at present, as does the representation of Yukon Territory. The net increase in representation for the whole Dominion is, therefore, ten.

The distribution of the seats among the provinces provided for in the Act is as follows:

Prince Edward Island	4
Nova Scotia	14
New Brunswick	11
Quebec	65
Ontario	82
Manitoba	17
Saskatchewan	21
Alberta	16
British Columbia	14
Yukon	1

The functions, powers and prerogatives of the Canadian House of Commons approximate as closely as may be to those possessed by the Lower House of the Parliament of the United Kingdom. Bills for appropriating any part of the Public Revenue, or for imposing any Tax or Impost, must originate in the House of Commons. It is not lawful for the House of Commons to adopt or pass any Vote, Resolution, Address, or Bill for the Appropriation of any Part of the Public Revenue, or of any Tax or Impost, to any Purpose, that has not been first recommended to the House by Message of the Governor-General in the Session in which such Vote, Resolution, Address or Bill is proposed.

Owing to the operation of the Redistribution Act, the constituencies of Lisgar and Selkirk changed names after 1891; that is, the constituency called Lisgar up to and including 1891 has since been called Selkirk, and vice versa. So in the above table, the figures for the elections up to and including 1891 are for what to that date was known as the constituency of Selkirk, but which territorially is identical, or practically so, with the present constituency of Lisgar.

(1) The first elec. in Marquette after the admiss. of Manitoba into Confed. was held Mar. 2, 1871. The return of the returning officer showed that each of the two candidates had received the same number of votes. The ret. officer had not, as now, the right to give his casting vote. In due course the matter came before the Hou. of C. and was referred to the Com. of Privileges and Elecs., who reported that the ret. officer should (under the old system of double returns) have declared both candidates elected. Under an order of the House (April 25), the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, attended and on motion of the Hon. Mr. Cameron, of Peel, a resolution was passed, instructing the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery to amend the return so as to declare both candidates elected. This was done, and Dr. Lynch, who was present in Ottawa, forthwith subscribed to the oath and took his seat. Then Hon. Mr. Cameron drew attention to the rule which provided that a member must withdraw while the matter of his election was before the House, whereupon Dr. Lynch withdrew. May 13, Mr. McKay, having arrived in Ottawa, presented himself and took the oath and his seat. Under similar conditions as Dr. Lynch he withdrew. A delay of six weeks was allowed the Elec. Com. to enquire into the matter. Before the House finally disposed of the matter Parliament was dissolved. (See Journals of the House.)

(2) Mr. Cunningham died while the protest against his return was before the courts.

PARLIAMENTARY PRESS GALLERY

Membership of the Press Gallery is restricted to bona fide parliamentary representatives of recognized newspapers and news distributing agencies. It is a voluntary, self-governing body subject to the authority of the Speaker in matters affecting House of Commons discipline and membership. The Press Gallery elects its own executive which considers all applications for membership, makes seating arrangements and conducts general business. Decisions of the executive are subject to review by a general meeting of members of the Gallery.

The President (or, in his absence, the Vice-President) acts as spokesman for the Gryall.

PROVINCE OF ALBERTA.

(Revised, December 24, 1928).

With the Province of Saskatchewan formed from part of the Northwest Territories by Act of Dominion Parliament, 1905 (first session, 10th Parliament). The two provinces are divided by the meridian of 110, west from Greenwich. They lie between British Columbia on the west, and Manitoba and the Northwest Territories on the east, and between the International boundary at the 49th parallel on the south, and the 60th parallel on the north. From north to south each province extends 760 miles, or as long as from the mouth of the Detroit River to the mouth of the Saguenay in a straight line. The area of the two provinces is 504,190 square miles, which is as large as the united areas of Great Britain, France and Germany, as large as the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota and the two Dakotas combined, and more than twice as large as the six New England States, together with New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. The provisions of the B.N.A. Act, 1867, with its several amendments, apply to the new provinces. The public lands are retained by the Government of Canada, and in place of these, as a source of revenue, the provinces receive an annual sum based upon the population as from time to time ascertained by the quinquennial census.

Act creating Province of Alberta came into force Sept. 1, 1905.

Population: (Census of 1911) 374,295; Census of 1921, 588,454. Estimate of Bureau of Statistics, 1928, 631,900.

NEW BRUNSWICK LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

At, and for many years after Confederation, New Brunswick had a Legis. Council as well as a Legis. Assembly. April 16, 1891, and Act (54 Vic., Chap IX) was passed abolishing the Legis. Council and vesting all its powers in the Lieut.-Governor and Assembly, thereafter designated the Legislative Assembly. This Act came into force upon the dissolution of 1892. The "Legislatures" are now officially counted from that date only, the present being known as the "Eighth," although including the sessions prior to 1892, it is really the 15th since Confederation.

El. by popular vote—48 members. Last g.e., August, 1925. Sessional Indemnity, $1,000 and travelling expenses; the Speaker $400 additional.

"In the session of 1924 an Act was passed under which the City of Fredericton and the towns of Devon and Marysville were taken out of the constituency of York County, and made into an independent constituency with one member. Similarly, the towns of St. Stephen and Milltown were taken out of the constituency of Charlotte Co. and allotted their own representative. On this basis the election of 1925 was held. In the session of 1926, however, these two new constituencies were done away with, and conditions as they existed in 1924 were restored, with this proviso, however, that the members elected for Fredericton, Devon and Marysville and St. Stephen and Milltown respectively should continue to represent those constituencies during the life of the present Assembly, or until a vacancy should occur in either."

THE SPEAKER

O'BRIEN, HON. J. LEONARD (Northumberland Co.). B. Nov. 6, 1896, at Nelson, N.B. S. of John O'Brien and Lavinia McPeake, both Canadians. Ed. Public School and St. Thomas College. A Lumberman. First elec. to N.B. Legis. at g.e., Aug. 10, 1925. A notable fact is that although only thirty years old and elected for the first time, was apptd. Speaker of Legis. Assembly at the opening of first session of the 9th Legis. on Mar. 11, 1926. Party pol., a Conservative. Rel., R.C. Address, South Nelson, N.B.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

Agitation for the abolition of this chamber has been carried on from the early nineties but without success. The proceedings which finally resulted in abolition began in 1926, when the present government introduced a bill providing for abolition. This bill, however, although it passed the assembly, was not concurred in by the Legislative Council.

On the 14th of May, 1926, an Order in Council was passed under section 1 of Chapter 256, R.S. 1923, entitled "Of the Decision of Constitutional and Other Provincial Questions", ordering a reference to the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia with respect to the following matters:

1. Has the Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia, acting by and with the advice of the Executive Council of Nova Scotia, power or authority to appoint in the name of the Crown by instrument under the Great Seal of the Province so many Members of the Legislative Council of Nova Scotia that the total number of the Members of such Council holding their offices or places as such Members would
   (a) exceed twenty-one

or

(b) exceed the total number of the Members of said Council who held their offices or places as such Members at the Union mentioned in Section 88 of The British North America Act, 1867?

2. Is the membership of the Legislative Council of Nova Scotia limited in number?

3. Is the tenure of office of Members of the said Council appointed thereto prior to the 7th day of May, A.D. 1925, during pleasure or during good behaviour or for life?

4. If such tenure is during pleasure is it during the pleasure of His Majesty the King, or during the pleasure of His Majesty represented in that behalf by the Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia acting by and with the advice of the Executive Council of Nova Scotia?

The reference was heard before the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia on the 12th of July, 1926, the Court being composed of four judges who divided evenly on the question.

On the 8th of February, 1927, an appeal then being pending before the Privy Council, another bill for abolition was introduced, passed the Assembly but was not concurred in by the Legislative Council.

On the 18th of October, 1927, the hearing was held before the Privy Council, who decided in effect that the number of councillors that may be appointed was not limited to twenty-one, and that, with the exception of those who had been appointed under the amendment of 1925—being appointed for ten years—the councillors held office during pleasure.

The abolition measure was passed and the Legislative Council went out of existence May 31, 1928.

ELECTRICITY is applied to man's needs through C.G.E. motors which turn the wheels of industry—through Hotpoint appliances which lighten household tasks—through millions of Edison Mazda Lamps which illuminate the home, the workshop and the street.

Radio, too, yields its greatest pleasures through Radiolas built by C.G.E.

These emblems therefore distinguish definite services to mankind and are permanent guideposts to quality in things electrical.

NORTHERN ONTARIO

CANADA

NORTHERN ONTARIO stretches from the Province of Quebec on the east to Manitoba on the west, and extends north from Southern Ontario 700 miles to Hudson Bay, covering an area of 330,000 square miles.

This vast territory is largely covered with valuable forests; is rich in minerals; is abundantly watered with lakes and rivers, and has great spaces of fertile soil especially that known as The Great Clay Belt which contains millions of acres of good agricultural land now open for settlement at fifty cents per acre.

What settlers say of the soil, climate, farming and forest life is told in a most attractive booklet issued under the direction of the Honourable John S. Martin, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario. Full instructions in regard to acquiring a title of these rich agricultural lands are given, including information relative to free Grants to Returned Soldiers and Sailors. For free copies write—

THE QUEBEC LEGISLATURE.

In accordance with the B.N.A. Act, 1867 (clause 71 and following) the Legislature for the Province of Quebec consists of the Lieutenant-Governor and of two Houses, styled the Legislative Council of Quebec and the Legislative Assembly of Quebec.

The Legislative Councillors are "appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for life, unless the Legislature of Quebec otherwise provides." The qualifications of the Legislative Councillors are the same as for members of the Senate of Canada and the place of a Legislative Councillor becomes vacant in the cases, mutatis mutandis, in which the place of Senator becomes vacant.

The Legislative Assembly is composed of members elected by the various electoral divisions into which the province is divided.

The work and authority of the two Houses are divided as in the Houses of the Dominion Parliament.

THE NORTH WEST TERRITORIES

Hudson Bay, discovered by Henry Hudson, the English sea captain, August 3, 1610, explored in 1612 and 1613 by Captain Button, who wintered at Port Nelson. Inauguration of trade in Northwest by Hudson Bay Co., 1668. Charter granted to H. B. Co. by King of England, 1670. Fort Prince of Wales (Churchill) began 1733. Country west and south west of Hudson Bay explored by Henry Kelsey in 1689 and 1690. Great Slave Lake, Clowey Lake, Artillery Lake, Clinton Colden Lake, Aylmer Lake and the Coppermine River discovered by Samuel Hearne, 1770 and 1771. The Mackenzie River discovered and explored by Alexander Mackenzie, 1789. The Arctic coast from Coronation Gulf to the northernmost spur of the Rocky Mountains explored and mapped by Sir John Franklin's expeditions, 1820 and 1827.

July 31, 1868, The "Rupert's Land Act." passed by the Imperial Parliament providing for the acquisition by the Dominion Government of "Rupert's Land," or the Hudson Bay Territory.

May 11, 1870, £300,000 paid by the Dominion Government for the territorial rights of the Hudson Bay Company in Rupert's Land.

Manitoba and "The North West Territories" (Hudson Bay Territory) became part of the Dominion, July 15, 1870.

District of Keewatin, created 1876.

The districts of Alberta, Assiniboia, Athabasca and Saskatchewan formed from the southern part of the Northwest Territories, 1882.

In 1888 these districts were accorded local responsible government, and the old North West Council replaced by the North West Legislature, which existed up to August 31, 1905.

Districts of Mackenzie, Ungava and Franklin created 1895.

The district of Keewatin, which had formerly been under the administration of the Lieut.-Governor of Manitoba, was, by Order-in-Council on July 24, 1905, re-annexed to the North West Territories and made subject to the same government and laws as the Territories.

September 1, 1905, Alberta and Saskatchewan, comprising the more settled portions of the North West Territories, south of the 60th parallel, N. latitude, began their existence as separate provinces.

Legislation passed during the 1911-1912 (1st session, 12th Parlt.) session of the Dominion Parliament, provided for the division of the district of Keewatin between the provinces of Ontario and Manitoba. By this legislation the territory of Manitoba was extended northerly to the 60th parallel of latitude, which also forms the northern boundary of the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. The eastern boundary of Manitoba was extended in a north-easterly direction to Hudson Bay. Theremaining southern part of Keewatin was added to Ontario. Byehe same Act the whole of the district of Ungava was added to the Province of Quebec.

The islands in James Bay, Hudson Bay, Hudson Strait and other northern waters were not included in the territory added to the Province.

The North West Territories, as at present existing, consequently include these islands, many of them of large area, and the vast unorganized districts of Franklin, Keewatin and McKenzie. According to the evidence heard before a select committee of the Senate during the session of 1906-07, immense areas of the districts of Keewatin and Mackenzie offer exceptional inducements to capitalists, lumbermen, sportsmen, fishermen and prospectors.

Area of North West Territories: 805,258,880 acres of land, 32,937,600 acres of water; total 838,196,480 acres or 1,309,682 square miles.

Population according to census of 1911, 6,507; 1921, 7,988; estimate of Bureau of Statistics, 1928, 9,200.

GOVERNMENT OF THE TERRITORIES.

The Government of the North West Territories was provided for at the time of the interruption of the existing territorial government by the creation of the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. According to the North West Territories Act of 1905, which is chapter 62 of the Revised Statutes of 1906, as amended in 1907, the Governor-General appoints for the Territories a chief executive officer styled and known as the Commissioner of the North West Territories, who exercises the executive powers which were vested in the Lieutenant-Governor of the N.W. Territories in Council on Aug. 31, 1905, the date of the separation of the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan from the old North West Territories so far as these executive powers "are applicable to and capable of being exercised in relation to the Government of the North West Territories as at present constituted." There is a special provision that "The Commissioner shall administer the government of the Territories under instructions from time to time given him by the Governor-in-Council or the Minister of the Interior."

SUPREME COURT OF CANADA

The Supreme Court of Canada (as also the Exchequer Court) was constituted in 1785 under "The Supreme and Exchequer Court Act" (38 Vic., Chap. 11).

The Supreme Court has jurisdiction as a High Court of Appeal in both civil and criminal cases throughout the Dominion of Canada. It is also a Court of Appeal for controverted election cases, from the Exchequer Court, from the Board of Railway Commissioners as provided in the Railway Act and under the Winding-up Act. It also has jurisdiction in controversies between the provinces and the Dominion. The Governor-in-Council may refer to the Supreme Court for an opinion upon any matter deemed advisable in the public interest. From the decision of the Supreme Court an appeal lies to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council of Great Britain by special leave of the Judicial Committee in all cases except appeals which come to the Supreme Court from the Exchequer Court sitting as a Court of Admiralty. In the latter case alone there is an appeal as of right.

The Supreme Court sits in Ottawa, where the judges reside and where three sessions annually are held. beginning on the first Tuesday in February, the first Tuesday in May and the first Tuesday in October.

In 1896 Parliament amended the Supreme Court Act by repealing s. 4, and substituting therefor the following: "The Supreme Court shall consist of a chief justice, to be called the Chief Justice of Canada, and five puisne judges who shall be appointed by the Governor-in-Council by letters patent under the Great Seal." This section appears in this form in the Supreme Court Act, R.S.C., c. 139, s. 4.

In 1927 the Supreme Court Act was amended by the substitution of this section instead of section 4 of Chap. 139, R.S.C. 1906.

"IV. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice, to be called the Chief Justice of Canada, and six Puisne judges, who shall be appointed by the Governor-in-Council by letters patent under the Great Seal."

Section IX. of the said Act was amended by adding thereto the following:—

"Provided that each Judge whether heretofore appointed or hereafter to be appointed, shall cease to hold office upon attaining the age of seventy-five years, or immediately, if he has already attained that age."

Sections VII and VIII of the letters patent passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, dated June 15, 1905, constituting the office of Governor-General and Commander in Chief of the Dominion of Canada, read as follow:—

"VII. And we do hereby declare Our pleasure to be that, in the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence of Our said Governor-General out of Our said Dominion, all and every the powers and authorities herein granted to him shall, until Our further pleasure is signified therein, be vested in such person as may be appointed by Us under Our Sign Manual and Signet to be Our Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Dominion; or, if there shall be no such person or persons as may be appointed by Us under Our Sign Manual and Signet to administer the Government of the same; and in case there shall be no person or persons within Our said Dominions so appointed by Us, then in Our Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Our said Dominion; or, in case of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence out of Our said Dominion of Our said Chief Justice for the time being, then in the Senior Judge for the time being of Our said Supreme Court then residing in Our said Dominion and not being under incapacity.

"Provided always, that the said Senior Judge shall act in the administration of the Government only if and when Our said Chief Justice shall not be present within Our said Dominion and capable of administering the Government.

"Provided further that no such powers or authorities shall vest in such Lieutenant-Governor, or such other person or persons, until he or they shall have taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governor-General of Our said Dominion and in the manner provided by the Instructions accompanying these Our Letters Patent.

"VIII. And we do hereby require and command all Our Officers and Ministers, Civil and Military, and all other, the inhabitants of Our said Dominions, to be obedient, aiding and assisting unto Our said Governor-General; or, in the event of his death, incapacity or absence, to such person or persons as may from time to time, under the provisions of these Our Letters Patent, administer the Government of Our said Dominion."

It was notified in the London Gazette of May 21, 1913, that the King had been pleased to approve of the use and recognition throughout His Majesty's Dominions during tenure of office of the title of "Honourable" in the case of the Chief Justice of Canada, the Judges of the Supreme and Exchequer Courts of Canada and some others.

THE EXCHEQUER COURT OF CANADA.

(On January 8, 1929).

The Exchequer Court of Canada possesses exclusive original jurisdiction in all cases in which demand is made or relief sought against the Crown or any of its officers. It enforces the law relating to revenue.

The Exchequer Court sits from time to time and in such places as the business of the Court requires.

By the Dominion Act of 1891, 54 and 55 Vic., c. 29, Admiralty jurisdiction was vested in the Exchequer Court (ss. 5 and 6), and the judges were designated "Local Judges in Admiralty of the Exchequer Court" (s.6); and other sections refer to the Exchequer Court "on its Admiralty side." By the Dominion Act of 1895, c. 39, these judges are deemed "to be Judges of a Superior Court."

The Exchequer Court is also a Prize Court in time of War.

Judges of the Exchequer Court are entitled to the designation "Honourable." See "Table of Canadian Titles."

BRITISH AND FOREIGN GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES IN CANADA

HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR GREAT BRITAIN

During the Imperial Conference in 1926 the question of representation of the Government of Great Britain at the Dominion capitals was discussed, and the Interimperial Relations Committee of the Conference reported as follows:

"A special aspect of the question of consultation which we considered was that concerning the representation of Great Britain in the Dominions. By reason of his constitutional position, as explained in section IV (b) of this Report, the Governor-General is no longer the representative of His Majesty's Government in Great Britain. There is no one therefore in the Dominion capitals in a position to represent with authority the views of His Majesty's Government in Great Britain.

"We summed up our conclusions in the following resolution which is submitted for the consideration of the Conference:—

'The Governments represented at the Imperial Conference are impressed with the desirability of developing a system of personal contact, both in London and in the Dominion capitals, to supplement the present system of intercommunication and the reciprocal supply of information on affairs requiring joint consideration. The manner in which any new system is to be worked out is a matter for consideration and settlement between His Majesty's Governments in Great Britain and the Dominions, with due regard to the circumstances of each particular part of the Empire, it being understood that any new arrangements should be supplementary to, and not in replacement of, the system of direct communication from Government to Government and the special arrangements which have been in force since 1918 for communications between Prime Ministers."

This resolution was adopted by the Conference as part of the report of the Internimperial Relations Committee. In consesequence thereof, Sir William Henry Clark, K.C.S.I., C.M.G., was appointed as High Commissioner in Canada for His Majesty's Government in Great Britain.

OFFICIAL PRECEDENCE

The establishment and the maintenance of tables or scales of official precedence result from the fact that in all nations and communities there are individuals, who, because they have entrusted to them by the nation the performance of certain responsible and honorable official or communal functions, are by common accord, regarded, either for the time being, or permanently, as occupying positions of various degrees of eminence in the social fabric.

In the old patriarchal communities social pre-eminence was naturally accorded to the heads of the tribal families, and precedence throughout the tribes was generally regulated by the seniority of the sons of the patriarchs and the individuals of their families. Of course there were exceptions to this rule, due to the personal ambitions and achievements of individuals.

Since nations have been evolved from the old tribal organizations, an official class of citizens has been developed, comprising those who, besides occupying the usual position of members of the state, have entrusted to them the execution of what have been described as the life functions of the nation; that is such functions as are peculiar to the civic organization in contradistinction to the general functions exercised and actions performed by individual citizens as independent units. Official service calls in a special degree for a sense of duty to the public trust, and in many cases for a spirit of sacrifice and, if needs be, self effacement. In recognition of these conditions, and often for very practical state reasons, special privileges are granted to certain of the more responsible officials within the spheres appointed for them. So public service has come to be the one outstanding element in determining relative rank in social etiquette—the corner stone of all official tables of social precedence.

"Precedence" has been defined as the priority of place, or superiority in rank, in the conventional system of arrangement under which the more eminent and dignified orders of a community are classified on occasion of public ceremony and in the intercourse of private life.

Public functions of some form or another occur with more or less frequency in every state, and those who serve and represent the people in official capacities are necessarily the principal, often the only, participants. An ordinary sense of decency, not to speak of dignity or that wholesome sense of national pride which exists in all races,demands that such functions be orderly, and that the monopoly of places of honour be placed beyond the accomplishment of the assuming upstart and unworthy elements to the exclusion of those entrusted by the nation with the administration of its affairs and the guardianship of its interests and honour, and thus, in a very special sense, representing it.

It is not alone in countries where monarchical systems of government prevail that precedence is a subject of official regulation, republics finding it indispensible that provision be made for checking the tendency of ambitious and often selfish and unpatriotic individuals and elements to monopolize the highest distinctions and honours and ignore the claims of the devoted and trusted officers and servants of the nation—its recognized official representatives. The famous "protocol" of the French Republic is a case in point.

Throughout the British Empire or Commonwealth of Nations, the "Tables" or "Scales" of Precedence emanate from the Crown, and are issued under authority of the Sovereign. The Crown is "the fountain of honour," and it is its undoubted prerogative to confer on any of its subjects, in any part of its dominions, such titles and distinctions and such rank and place "as to it may seem meet and convenient." Its discretion is limited in those cases only wherein it has been submitted to restraint by Act of Parliament.

There is not, even in the Mother Country, any complete and comprehensive code whereby the scheme of social gradation has been defined and settled, once and for all, on a permanent foundation. The principles and rules at present controlling it have been formulated at different periods and have been derived from various sources.

In the old time, questions of precedence came in the ordinary course of things within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Chivalry in which figured such picturesque officials as lord high constables, earl marshals, kings of arms, heralds, pursuivants, etc. Points of unusual moment were referred to and decided by the sovereign in person, the privy council, or parliament.

Although there were "estates" titles and orders of various degrees in England from earliest historical times the oldest English table of precedence in existence is the "Order of All Estates of Nobles and Gentry" prepared for the coronation of Henry IV in 1399.

In the thirty-first year of King Henry VIII, Parliament, by statutory enactment, took cognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," which, although it concerned directly only the Great Officers of State, and referred but incidentally to the places of the Nobility, has since been considered the chief authority for the marshalling of dignities.

This Act was originated, it is important to remember, by the desire of the King, and it is declared, as a preliminary, that "although it appertained altogether to the Royal Prerogative to give such honour, reputation, and placing to his Councillors and others his subjects as should be seeming to the King's most excellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and contented for an order to be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the placing of the Great Officers and Lords."

The Statute of Henry VIII was in the nature of a declaratory Act, confirming the ancient and pre-existing I aw of Precedence, and, in confirmation of this, it is a matter of historical fact that the advice of Garter King of Arms was taken before the bill was brought in. This Act of King Henry VIII's parliament still remains the only legislative measure in which it has been attempted to deal directly and systematically with any large and important section of the English scale or Table of Precedence. (There are separate tables for Scotland, Ireland, Wales, each Dominion, India and the Crown Colonies.)

Where no act of Parliament applies, precedence is determined by the will of the Sovereign or by what is accepted as "ancient usage and established custom."

Lists that show practice and custom in matters of precedence, such as are seen in the published accounts of assemblies of the estates of the realm such as at solemnities—Coronations, funerals, and the like, have been invoked in the preparation of the various Tables of precedence at present in force throughout the Empire.

Strict observance of these lists is insisted upon, for the principle underlying the maintenance of these lists is the protection of established right; and the least interference, u nless made by Royal or Parliamentary authority, would be destructive of the right of some one entitled to rank on the scale, and not unlikely to dishonour the State in the person of a recognized representative.

It is Men's rank that confers precedence and regulates State Ceremonials. At the King's Courts, where husbands and wives pass His Majesty together, the precedence of the husbands is that which is regarded.

The wives and children of great officers of State and of all of those who derive their places on the scale from official rank, have no consequent precedence.

Foreign Titles of Nobility borne by British subjects afford their holders no precedence whatever in the Mother Country or elsewhere in the Empire, and, strictly speaking, a Royal License should be obtained for their use.

Persons entitled to precedence in the United Kingdom, in Foreign Countries, or in any particular Dominion or Colony, are not entitled, as of a right, to the same precedence elsewhere; but in the absence of any special Instruction from the King, the precedence of such persons in the Overseas Dominions and Colonies of the British Commonwealth is determined by the King's Representative (the Governor General or Governor).

TABLE OF PRECEDENCE FOR CANADA.

The official Table of Precedence is established and subject to regulations by the Home Government, acting through the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies. The first table of Precedence for the Dominion was prepared at Confederation. The first important amendment was announced in despatches from the Secretary of State for the Colonies bearing date Nov. 3, 1879 and published in the Statutes of Canada of 1880 (43 Victoria, p. XXII). The next amendment was announced n a despatch dated Downing Street, Dec. 29, 1893, and published in the Canada Gazette, Jan. 20, 1894. The last noted amendment assigned, on the recommendation of the Dominion Government, precedence to the Controllers of Customs and Inland Revenue and the Lieutenant-Governors of Manitoba, British Columbia, Prince Edward Island and the North West Territories.

During the administration of Sir Mackenzie Bowell some suggestions for a further revision of the Table of Precedence were made to the Colonial Office, but there was a change of Government before the matter reached a final issue.

December, 1923, a revised Table of Precedence approved by the King, and despatched from the Colonial Office, December 3, 1923, was received by His Excellency the Governor-General and published in the Canada Gazette on December 22nd as follows: —

NOTE—Judges at present on the retired list and Judges at present holding Office but who shall retire after the date of the New Table shall not be affected as to Precedence given to them by the Old Table*

In the revised table the designation of places for the Lieutenant Governors of Saskatchewan and Alberta (9 and 10) are new; so are section 11, designating the place of the Prime Minister of Canada; section 13, according places to "The Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, the General Superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, and the corresponding head of the Baptist Church in Canada"; section 19, providing for the Prime Ministers of the Provinces of Canada; the concluding clause of section 20, providing for the Judge appointed to perform the duties of Chief Justice at Quebec and Montreal; section 27, providing for the Chief of Staff National Defence, the Director of Naval Services and the Director of the Air Force provided they are of the rank of Major-General or its equivalent or higher rank. The Speaker and members of the House of Commons are given relatively higher place than accorded to them in the old list.

An important feature of the revised table is the omission of any reference to Imperial Privy Councillors. Since 1903 it had been the practice, with the sanction of the Governor-General, to accord certain precedence to Imperial Privy Councillors; and the omission of reference to such officers in the revised list has been taken as an indication that the practice mentioned be discontinued, and it has been.

Official rank and position, although conferring special official precedence on the holder of the office as per the Table of Precedence, does not do so any more in Canada than in the Mother Country, upon the holder's wife and children. Thus the wives and children of Privy Councillors, Senators, Judges, members of Parliament, and officers of state, as such, have no special precedence, except such as is accorded to them (and it is always done) as a compliment. Widows of Privy Councillors, Senators, Judges, or public officials, have no claims to complimentary precedence as such, any claim they might have had in that respect lapsing with the demise of their husbands.

*Retired Judges were given precedence next after the present Judge of their respective Courts by the Old Table.

Knightly titles or other Imperial titles and appointments do not entitle the holders to any recognition under the Official Table of Precedence for Canada.

This is a fact which is often overlooked by those in charge of semi-official and popular ceremonial events, and gentlemen entitled to precedence in Canada by the official table sanctioned by the Sovereign, often find themselves ignored in favour of others having no claim whatever to precedence in Canada although they may be entitled to recognized places in the Mother Country or other parts of the Empire.

Members of the Royal Family while in Canada take precedence next after the Governor-General, this according to a rule in effect throughout His Majesty's Dominions.

TABLE OF TITLES TO BE USED IN CANADA.

The following to be eligible to be personally recommended by the Governor-General for His Majesty's permission to retain the title of "Honourable."

---

(1) H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, being of the Royal Family, was while Governor-General styled "His Royal Highness the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief."

The term "Her Excellency" was, of course, in disuse during the Duke of Connaught's regime, in favour of that of "Her Royal Highness."

(1) Saskatchewan for some years has had a Court of Appeal and Court of King's Bench in place of the old "Supreme Court."

ALGOMA OPEN HEARTH ALLOY STEELS

CHROME — CHROME MOLYBDENUM — CHROME-VANADIUM — CHROME-NICKEL — NICKEL

All of these Steels we supply in Hot Rolled Bars or Billets

ALLOY STEEL has found a useful place in many fields—transportation equipment has especially benefited by its use.

Pleasure cars, trucks, locomotives, steamships, bridges, power generating equipment, etc.—all have taken a share of alloy steel and have helped demonstrate its value and economies.

They have 25% to 100% greater strength than carbon steels and have greater hardness and strength per unit of cross section, with no loss in ductility. They give, they flex, but they do not break. They resist shock.

For Strength where the stress comes — ALGOMA ALLOY STEEL.
